

A complex black and white maze pattern. The maze is composed of a grid of squares. Some squares are solid black, while others are white. The black squares form a series of walls that create a single, continuous, winding path through the maze. The path starts from the left edge and ends at the right edge. The maze is quite intricate, with many dead ends and loops. The overall shape is roughly rectangular, with a few irregularities on the top and bottom edges.

Answer key

