Name _____ Date _____

Owen had a wiggly tooth. It was in the front, on the bottom. All day he pushed it with his tongue. It moved, but it did not come out.

"Will it ever fall out?" Owen asked his dad.

"It will come out when it is ready," said Dad.

At lunch on Tuesday, Owen ate a big red apple. He took one bite, then two. On the third bite, he felt a gap in his mouth. He looked at the apple. His tooth was stuck in it!

Owen wrapped the tooth in a napkin. He put it in his lunch box to keep it safe. After school, he showed Dad the tooth and his new smile.
